Delta Technology is a complete workflow solution with an integrated RIP system whose draught pursues the temporal and spatial separation of the RIP and issue process. The most important advantages of delta Technology are the production security with delta specific for issue lists on the base of the R.O.O.M draught (RIP Once, output Many) and the high productiveness of the RIP/servers architecture. With delta Technology bottlenecks can be avoided in the Prepress and issue devices continuously with printable, perfect data be supplied. Delta Technology addresses Prepress companies and printers with own pressure preliminary stage of every size. Delta Technology to the individual demands can be adapted by the modular construction and his open architecture optimally.
