Konica Minolta Dynax 7D Digitally SLR Camera

Non-new

Robust, semiprofessional DSLR - Konica Minolta Dynax 7D

The camera front and the ground of the Dynax 7D exist of a magnesium alloy.

There are no compromises also with the Pentaprisma:

Here the picture caught by the objective not about small mirrors is diverted in the seeker, but about a high-quality glass prism. This helps of the Dynax 7D to particularly make clear or highlight and fine seeker picture.

The seeker himself covers the actual picture field to 95 percent and offers a 0.9-fold seeker enlargement.

Then on the set disc are engraved also nine Autofokus-Felder/marks on which the Dynax 7D can put sharply.

And so that the motives sighted in the seeker remain later in the picture quiet, a developed version integrates the Dynax 7D already with some models of the Dimage series of been used Anti Shake system.

In the scope of supply the objective is included AF-D 28-100mm!
